Chapter News: In Memoriam: Victor J. Faggella

Victor J. Faggella of Mahopac, NY, formerly of Yorktown Heights, NY, died April 11, 2017, at age 87. Before becoming a home inspector, he worked as a teacher for the Pleasantville Union Free School District. After retiring in 1985, Vic founded Centurion Home Inspection in Mahopac. He had a bachelor’s degree in industrial technology and a master’s degree in education, both from New York University, and he and his wife, Teresa, had four children. Vic will be remembered for his patience, kindness, mentoring and his love of the Yankees.

ASHI recently presented Vic’s family with a Resolution of Respect—see image to the right:

A member of ASHI for more than 35 years, Vic was an important member of the ASHI family. Through the years, he helped many inspectors become educated in the home inspection profession. From serving on the executive board of the New York Metro ASHI Chapter for over 30 years, to running the NY Metro ASHI educational seminar with his son for over 20 years, to presenting at ASHI National Conferences and InspectionWorld®, to serving on the ASHI Technical Committee, Vic was all about helping others expand their knowledge and become the best that they could be.

In 2002, Vic was presented with the John E. Cox Award in honor of his exemplary contributions to the NY Metro ASHI Chapter. (FYI: NY Metro ASHI is also known as “The Founding Chapter” because of its role in the early years of ASHI’s history.) According to Vic, one of the proudest days of his life was when his son, Victor G., won the Cox award in 2010.

We are today comforted by the word of our Lord in Revelations 21:4 which says: “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Victor affectionately known as Vic was a member of the American Society of Home Inspectors (ASHI) for over 35 years. Vic was more than a member of ASHI, he was family. He helped so many inspectors down through the years become educated in the home inspection profession. Serving on the executive board of NY Metro ASHI for over 30 years, to running the NY Metro ASHI educational seminar with his son for over 20 years, to presenting at the National Conference, to serving on the ASHI Technical Committee, Vic was all about helping others expand their knowledge and become the best that they could be.

In 2002, Vic was presented with the John E. Cox Award. He was honored for his exemplary contributions to the New York Metro Chapter. "The Founding Chapter," one of the proudest days of his life is when his son Victor G. won the Cox award in 2010.

ASHI was truly blessed to have had Vic in our lives and in the profession and we will surely miss him. We would like to thank the Faggella family for sharing this wonderful man with us.

Know that the ASHI family will continually keep the family in our prayers.
